Work on Dawatul-Haq in Bangladesh

Majlis e Dawatul Haq was initially established in 1358 AH in India by Hakeemul Ummat Hadhrat Moulana Ashraf Ali Thanwi رحمه الله عليه, who without doubt was the revivalist of century in the Subcontinent. However, it was only in the year 1370 AH after the demise of Hadhrat Thanwi رحمه الله عليه that, the seed started blossoming under the guidance and leadership of Hadhrat Moulana Shah Abrarul Haq Saheb رحمه الله عليه. Majlis e Dawatul Haq is the centre of Sunnah where, the mission is to teach common people five things, which are fundamental of Islam (Iman, Ibadat, Muamalat, Mubashrat, and Tasauf). Mufti Mansurul Haque دامت بركاتهم is the Nayeab-e- amir of Dawatul-Haq in Bangladesh and also Amir in Muhammadpur, Dhaka region.

About politics

Mufti Mansurul Haque دامت بركاتهم is a strong follower of Islamic ordinance regarding economics and politics. He never attended any political functions or meetings. But He always speaks word of justice for those people who are against Islam and he said that "The true fight or politics is that who invite his brothers and sister and others towards Islam. If he does that, Allah Subhanahu Wa Ta'ala said "I will give you the khelafat (Throne of reign) in this earth".
